9 3.7 REASONS FOR DEVIATION FROM STANDARD CALCULATION.

10 Kelly J. Bennett nka Kelly J. Jovanovich

11 The child support amount ordered in paragraph 3.5 does not deviate from the 12 standard calculation.

13 Zachariah J. Bennett

14 ☒ The child support amount ordered in paragraph 3.5 does not deviate from the 15 standard calculation.

16 ☐ The child support amount ordered in paragraph 3.5 deviates from the standard
17 calculation for the following reasons:

18 The obligor has established that it is unjust to apply the presumptive 19 minimum payment of $50.00 per child. The factual basis for these reasons is as follows: the father is imprisoned in the Washington Department of Corrections, with a current projected release date of July 30, 2015.

20 3.8 REASONS WHY REQUEST FOR DEVIATION WAS DENIED.

21 ☐ Does not apply. A deviation for the obligor father was ordered.

22 ☒ The deviation sought by the obligor father was denied because a deviation below the 23 presumptive minimum child support obligation of $50.00 per month would leave 24 insufficient funds in the custodial parent's household to meet the basic needs of the child.

25 3.9 STARTING DATE AND DAY TO BE PAID:

26 Starting Date: June 5, 2013

27 Day(s) of the month support is due: 1st

18 cost and, if so, provide the health insurance policy information.

21 enforced against real and personal property under the child support statutes of this or any
22 other state, without further notice to the obligor parent at any time after entry of this order
23 unless an alternative provision is made below:

24 [If the court orders immediate wage withholding in a case where DCS does not provide 25 support enforcement services, a mandatory wage assignment under Chap. 26.18 RCW must 26 be entered and support payments must be made to the Support Registry.]

27 3.13 TERMINATION OF SUPPORT:

28 Support shall be paid:

21
22 3.18 MEDICAL SUPPORT - Health Insurance

24 as follows:

25 3.18.1 HEALTH INSURANCE (either check box A(1), or check box A(2) and complete 26 sections B and C. Section D applies in all cases.)

27 A. Evidence

28 (1) ☒ There is insufficient evidence for the court to determine which parent must provide coverage and which parent must contribute a sum certain. Therefore, the court is not specifying how insurance coverage shall be provided. The petitioner's and respondents' medical support obligations may be enforced by the Division of Child Support or the other parent under RCW 26.18.170 as described in paragraph 3.18.2, below.

(2) Does not apply because A(1) is checked above.

1 B. Does not apply because A(1) is checked above.

2 C. Does not apply because A(1) is checked above.

5 If the children are receiving state financed medical coverage, the Division of Child
6 Support may enforce the responsible parent's monthly premium.

7 The parent(s) shall maintain health insurance coverage, if available for the children
8 listed in paragraph 3.1, until further order of the court or until health insurance is no
9 longer available through the parents' employer or union and no conversion privileges
10 exist to continue coverage following termination of employment.

12 liable for any covered health care costs for which that parent receives direct payment
13 from an insurer.

14 A parent who is required under this order to provide health insurance coverage shall 15 provide proof that such coverage is available or not available within 20 days of the 16 entry of this order to the physical custodian or the Washington State Support Registry
17 if the parent has been notified or ordered to make payments to the Washington State
18 Support Registry.

19 If proof that health insurance coverage is available or not available is not provide 20 within 20 days, the parent seeking enforcement or the Department of Social and 21 Health Services may seek direct enforcement of the coverage through the other
22 parent's employer or union without further notice to the other parent as provided
23 under Chapter 26.18 RCW.

24 3.18.2 CHANGE OF CIRCUMSTANCES AND ENFORCEMENT

25 A parent required to provide health insurance coverage must notify both the Division of 26 Child Support and the other parent when coverage terminates.

27 If the parents' circumstances change, or if the court has not specified how medical support
28 shall be provided, the parents' medical support obligations will be enforced as provided in RCW 26.18.170. If a parent does not provide proof of accessible coverage for the children through private insurance, a parent may be required to satisfy his or her medical support obligation by doing one of the following, listed in order of priority:

1. Providing or maintaining health insurance coverage through the parent's employer or union at a cost not to exceed 25% of that parent's basic support obligation;
2. Contributing the parent's proportionate share of a monthly premium being paid by the other parent for health insurance coverage for the children listed in paragraph 3.1 of this order, not to exceed 25% of the obligated parent's basic support obligation; or

3.19 UNINSURED MEDICAL EXPENSES

Both parents have an obligation to pay their share of uninsured medical expenses. Zackariah Jeremiah Bennett shall pay 00% of uninsured medical expenses (unless stated otherwise, Zackariah Jeremiah Bennett's proportional share of income from the Worksheet, line 6) and Kelly J. Bennett nka Kelly J. Jovanovich shall pay 100% of uninsured medical expenses (unless stated otherwise, Kelly J. Jovanovich's proportional share of income from the Worksheet, line 6).

Ninety (90) days following the obligor father's release from incarceration, Zackariah Jeremiah Bennett shall pay 48% of uninsured medical expenses (unless stated otherwise, Zackariah Jeremiah Bennett's proportional share of income from the Worksheet, line 6) and Kelly J.
