

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON FOR KING COUNTY

ZACKARIAH BENNETT,

Appellant,

v.

MELVINA MANNING,

Respondent.

Superior Court No.: 23-2-11352-7

MOTION FOR APPROVAL OF ORDER OF INDIGENCY

TO: THE HONORABLE COURT AND ALL PARTIES OF RECORD:

Appellant, Zackariah Bennett, respectfully moves this Court to approve his previously filed Motion for Order of Indigency.

I. RELIEF REQUESTED

Appellant requests approval of his Motion for Order of Indigency to waive costs associated with preparing Clerk's Papers and transcripts necessary for his appeal.

II. FACTS

1. Appellant is pursuing an appeal in Cause No. 87007-6 in the Court of Appeals.

2. Appellant filed a Motion for Order of Indigency on 08/14/2024, requesting waiver of fees for Clerk's Papers and transcripts.

3. As of this filing, the motion remains unaddressed, creating significant procedural barriers to Appellant's compliance with appellate rules.

III. ARGUMENT

Under RAP 15.2, indigent appellants are entitled to waivers of fees to ensure access to justice. Appellant is unable to pay the required fees due to his financial circumstances, which have been previously documented in his motion. Approval of the Order of Indigency is necessary to enable Appellant to pursue his appeal and comply with RAP requirements.

IV. CONCLUSION

Appellant respectfully requests that the Court approve his Motion for Order of Indigency without further delay.

DATED this 2nd day of December, 2024.

Respectfully submitted,

Zackariah Bennett
