I called, but he was too busy. He thanked me for calling, then told me he'd get a hold of me later today or tomorrow.

Melvina

did you register the back to Grandma & Grandpa?

You sent

No, should I have?

Melvina

I would have... with all the back child support & a greedy wife

You sent

Back support can't touch me since I'm setting up a payment plan, and wife can't do shit cause I didn't title it when we were together. Besides, we're still married and she's living with dude. She pisses me off and I'll have her charged with Felony Bigamy. I read the Colorado law, it's a felony to live with another "as if married" when you are married to another. I think it's a class 3 felony.

Melvina

she is living with Jeff & Carol isn't she?

Melvina

either way, glad you got your bike up n running

You sent

No, she moved out a bit ago. I have many sources in CO. She is living with her little man from what I've been told. I could care less, she had best just leave me alone.

Melvina

I have MSN during the day melvina_roberson@america.htc.com

Melvina

all I know is she is working full time as a manager at some kids store

You sent

how the hell did she BS her way into a management position with basically no work history and not even a GED?

Melvina

we were wondering the same thing

You sent

oh yeah, for some reason Messenger is down so I can't sign in. I have your work contact in it already though.

November 16, 2010

11/16/10, 10:23 PM

You sent

I am working on all my plans, and making new ones, and still in school. Still bored as hell in E-WA, and to far from where I want to be. Also too far from Tim, not that I can see him anyway.

You sent

The only thing I truly want in life I have to fight for. I'm not allowed to see my son, and along with that I don't get to see my mom. This whole situation fucking blows. I feel like there is a division in the family over this BS.

Melvina

you are closer now than when you were in Colorado.. you have a lot of hours in the day, make use of them. I am serious, start your day with 2 hour run. Split wood, stack wood, find things to do every day that keeps you in shape. Make a schedule, stay consistent and you will see a difference in your attitude. Start searching for jobs. Get your resume on Monster.com. I have a job & I submit resumes monthly to different cities, different states. You never know what opportunities are out there unless you look for them. Make an appt with DCS to get your child support reduced. Make a checklist of all the things you need to do to get on track & do them.

You sent

Just so you know, I'm up by 7am every morning doing shit all day long that needs to get done. It takes more than just being occupied to fulfill my life, I was occupied for over two years locked up, doing shit that needed done, and was still bored every day. Life is part what you make it, and part what others make you deal with. I make the best of what little I have, and try to smile through all the bullshit. Someday you'll see the person I am now, and not be scared of the person I used to be. I grew up, get over the past so we can have a future.

You sent

crap, I can't delete that last message. sorry for being a dick, just pissed off about this whole screwed up situation. pissed because not only did I basically lose my son, but my mom as well.

You sent

I am doing everything you suggested (minus firewood, we use pellets now), and I don't run cause I'm too busy first thing. I am calling DCS tomorrow, couldn't get through today. My attitude won't change by staying busy, I don't have time in a single day to do more than I am already, and filling time isn't my issue.

You sent

My checklist is nearly empty already mom. Call DCS, GET (not look for) a job, and get my visiting rights back are all that's left on a pretty long list. And I've only been out for a week.

Melvina

I didn't say a damned thing about the past so stop with your attitude. I just offered some suggestions. There is nothing wrong with suggesting a run every day. I go to the gym 3 days a week & those are my most productive days. I would love to be able to go for a run, a bike ride, or a walk every morning. I know you don't have weights so I suggested chopping wood (I do it during work outs only no ax or wood lol) Getting your resume done & on Monster.com wasn't a slam, it was a reference for job hunting. Monster.com covers everywhere. Finding a job is not going to be easy no matter what town you look in. It takes forever to get into DCS so the sooner you make an appt. the sooner you can get a payment plan & a reduction for the time you were locked up. I want to see you being productive. I have only offered suggestions that I thought would help & encourage you. Stop being so defensive!

Melvina

you have to LOOK for a job before you can GET a job which is why I suggested getting your resume online for employers to see.

You sent

I'm just REALLY frustrated right now. I've posted my resume several times already, then the damn file corrupted, I haven't been able to see my PO yet to get my boundaries, just got insured today, but without boundaries can't go look for a job or even go to an interview if I get one. I've been highly productive every day mom.

Melvina

we are typing & sending over top of each other so it looks like we are not hearing what the other is saying... When setting goals, remember to set lots of small ones so the bigger ones are easier to reach. There are a lot of steps to reach each goal you set.

You sent

I know mom, and that's exactly what I'm doing.

Melvina

start applying to jobs... you will be one step ahead when you see your PO cause that is more than likely going to be a requirement. If you get an interview and it is outside your boundaries, tell your PO. So what, if you can't go, turn down the interview telling them you accepted another job. Posting resumes and applying for jobs is easy, getting an interview takes time.

You sent

I already started applying, and have a list of open positions to apply to once i get permission to drive to them. believe it or not, I'm doing everything I can.

Melvina

I didn't say you weren't. I was only trying to help. You can still apply and see if you get a call for an interview.

You sent

I've been doing that. just really frustrated with shit right now.

Melvina

I think you expected more to be happening & happening quicker than they are. You set your expectations too high. Maybe you need to lower them & not expect so much so fast.

You sent

I expect to get fucked at every turn, so far things are better than I expected. Still frustrated not having decent contact with either son nor mother, and being viewed as some piece of shit.

November 17, 2010

11/17/10, 12:26 AM

Melvina

no one said you can't call me & again, small steps to the big goal. One step at a time Zack. You just said you you don't even have permission to drive for a job interview so you can't drive over here either. You can't make arrangements to see your son if you don't have any boundaries from your PO. Just because you can't finalize a date & time whether it is for an interview or a visit, doesn't mean you can't start inquiring. Those are the small steps.

November 18, 2010

11/18/10, 8:05 PM

Melvina

we've been waiting for your call but I need to get Tim Tim in the bath & ready for bed. When you were in CO I knew the times were going to be somewhat inconsistent but now that you're home we need to have a set time when you are going to call so we can keep him on a schedule.

You sent

when can we start videochat?

so, if you can manage a video card (PCI Express x16) that is better than the onboard video (Intel Graphics Media Accelerator X4500) of the computer I'm getting, that'd be awesome. I'm not sure if the onboard will support the games I want to play since I will have a PC not a game system. I think my onboard will play CoD modern warfare 2, but if you can get me a better one, merry x-mas & B-day to me.

Melvina

he has no clue he talked to you or Ben. He doesn't remember John being their 14 hrs yesterday. He is HEAVILY sedated. Ask Shirley. He has no clue what day it is, what time it is or who has come and gone.

my guess is a) not pregnant b) not yours or c) she will not have the baby But, if she is, it is yours and she keeps it, you won't have any say so if you're not together mom, I CANNOT explain why, but DeLee NEEDS to be rescued.

You sent

If you never do me another favor in my life, I beg you, as your son, your daughter in law needs pulled away from what is happening to her. Her life, sanity, and general well being are at stake. I can't afford (legally, financially, emotionally) to do this, but if I cannot find another way, I will do it myself. I am in tears after forcing her to talk to me mom after hearing what she had to say...

Melvina

she will not/has not listened to a damn thing I have said. She was "rescued" from her Tacoma situation and she went right back to him. She has family in Monroe but she refuses to get out & stay out. I can't force her to do something she isn't ready & willing to do.

You sent it has gone to a whole new level. this is insane.

You sent

No happy father's day from you? Shitty... 🙄

Melvina

I'm sorry.

You sent

Sadly, I'm getting used to it. I was a fool to sign those papers and believe in the promises made, to trust that the visitation plan was a reality, it that we could work things as a family without dragging this through the courts. I've always trusted too easily, and paid heavily for it. If it's going to be a "very long time" before I get reintroduced into my son's life, I might as well put my money to use trying to shorten that time.

You sent

I love you mom. And I'm feeling both hurt and betrayed by all of this.

Melvina

Don't start threatening me. We are noting the adoption for trial. This isn't about YOU!!!! This is about what is best for this boy. That will never change!

You sent

Mom, that was not a threat. I just want to be part of my son's life.

Melvina

You want to take me to court, go ahead. I told you you need to get stable and that when Rebecca gives the go ahead then we will do just that.

You sent

You will NEVER convince me that being kept from my son is best for him. And those papers we agreed on said nothing about Rebecca.

Melvina

OK You don't know anthill about what's best for Tim and you don't care. You only want what you think is best for you. We have stood firm that we will do whatever his therapist says. That is not going to change.

You sent

You don't know anything about me mom, obviously. I love my son, and want to be a part of his life, like we agreed upon when I signed the papers, that's all. I want you to keep your word that was given when you convinced me to sign, to keep to the agreement that came with the papers.

You sent

I'm not trying to fight with you, I'm just tired of feeling screwed over and lied too.

Melvina

We never gave you a date or a time frame ever. The adoption was on hold thanks to kelly. She is now getting married and we are noting this for trial at the tune of 10grand if not more. We never lied to you. You are not the victim here.

Melvina

You are still in work release. Yes you have a great job making a ton of money. Get your own place, be stable for a couple of years and everything will fall into place.

You sent

It won't be very many years before Tim is old enough to decide for himself.

Melvina

That's exactly right. Just be thankful we have never ever bad mouthed you and we never will.

You sent

I truly hope that's the case mom. I love you, and have been working hard to repair our relationship. I do NOT want to fight, that being said, I will do everything within the scope of the law to be a part of my son's life.

You sent

I had phone calls when I was in jail up until the day your lawyer received my papers. I want calls again mom.

Melvina

Everything stopped the last time you were here. You never had calls this last stint in prison.

You sent

Mom, I had them in county jail, prior to signing the papers.

Melvina

No you didn't. We stopped all communications when you got in trouble again. We will be seeing Rebecca in September and by then the adoption should be final and we will go from there.

You sent

I understand you're trying to protect Tim. I respect that, but completely cutting me out of his life is just wrong. For him and for me.

Melvina

Not according to the top therapist in WA. Got a problem with what I'm saying, tell it to Rebecca.

You sent

Ask John, he might remember the calls. They are also mentioned in letters I wrote to you from jail, lawyers I wrote to gma, etc. And fine, give me her info, and I will set up an appt with her.

Melvina

Www.attachmentandtraumaspecialists.com

You sent

I love you dearly mom, and can't stand fighting with you. I just want progress and understanding from you.

Melvina

I understand your frustration but you need to stop thinking and start listening. Your friends who are giving you advise don't know anything. They have not spent the last 7 years in my shoes or Tim shoes. They only hear what you say. 2 months out of prison and a job is not enough to change the way things are with Tim. You are not stable in your job, living arrangements or your relationship with Christina. We are not going anywhere. We have dedicated the last 7 years to this boy. We go no where without him. NO where. No date nights, no vacations, nothing. It has costs us thousands of dollars to get him mentally and emotionally healthy. We get a whopping $300 a month from the state and every dime is spent on him. Clothes, shoes, school needs, medicine, therapy. We have not received a dime from anyone in 7 years to help.

Melvina

You had all your support obligations written off.

You sent

Not all, I owe you over 8k still. I plan on helping all I can when I am out.

Melvina

You are doing great. Keep doing it. We will see what the future holds. Stability is proven not talked about

Melvina

You are making more money than John and I put together

Melvina

We barely make it pay check to paycheck.

Melvina

But Tim goes without nothing. He is happy and healthy and that is all that matters to us.

You sent

And mom, I take my advice from my heart and the family, I don't really have much in the way of friends these days. I wish I could send you money, but DOC policy says I can only send money to my release address.

Melvina

Save your money. You never know when a job will end.

Melvina

Be happy for Tim.

You sent

And question, why would you bring Christina into this? She has nothing to do with my contact with Tim.

Melvina

Stability

You sent

?

Melvina

You can't be changing girlfriends like underwear

You sent

This is the only one I've had in years

Melvina

If a girlfriend is part of your life, she will be a part of Time life when that time comes.

Melvina

Tims life...stupid auto correct

You sent

Eventually, yes she would be. She has kids, and is an amazing mother to them. Josh has spent time with her, and would probably agree this is the best choice I've ever made in a girl.

Melvina

It's always awesome in the beginning. See where you are in a year. I'm glad you have a great girlfriend and I hope you never disrespect her in anyway under any circumstances. Stay clean and sober. Keep on doing what your doing, moving forward and making a future. You have a lot of years of bad choices behind you and a tough road ahead. You need to get your own place and live a legit life.

You sent

Working on it as hard as I can, doing everything in my power to make it so.

Melvina

It gets harder once you are really on your own. Time will tell. Actions speak louder than words. You've been out before and went right back to your old ways. The only difference this time is you have a real job. I'll keep saying the same thing to you. Stability is all that matters. You have to have a job for a year before it's considered a stable work history. Keeping an apartment or a house for a year is stability. Tim is only 8. There are plenty of years left in his life.

Melvina

120 lbs gone for John and 60 for me

You sent

Omg, you both look a decade younger now!

Melvina

We will never let that happen again EVER

You sent

Good, cause I want you around for as long as possible. 🥰

Melvina

A good friend of Johns died of a heart attack and they were the same age and weight. He said fuck that and made life style changes. I've only lost mine over the past 2 years or so. It was a lot harder for me but I've kept it off for over a year now.

You sent

You're doing great!

You sent

So, I have to have shoulder surgery.

Melvina

Good luck

You sent

I have a labral tear

Melvina

Oh that's easy fix and recovery. That was 1 of my many shoulder issues.

Melvina

A little hole and not much pain.

Melvina

That was added into the last surgery I had

You sent

Good, did you have deposits removed too? I'm getting that as well.

You sent

Yes, or powerblocks.

Melvina

that would be a better idea since you're in a small place. If I see any for sale, I'll let you know

You sent

Ty so much! It will help me recover after surgery too.

Melvina

be sure you get into PT right away...I had surgery 4 mo's ago & I am still only doing rows, around the worlds with a medicine ball and band stretches. But I have a pretty messed up shoulder. I can't do anything to build muscles in my pecs, only stretch them

You sent

My tear extends into the back, I'm meeting another surgeon on Thursday. The first one wouldn't touch me due to the location.

Melvina

I go to Proliance Surgeons and they are fantastic. I had 2 others before I found them & I wasn't happy with their answers. <https://www.proliancesurgeons.com/>

You sent

I will check into them. Right now I'm going through Orthopedic Specialists of Seattle.

Melvina

hopefully you won't be out of work for a really long time. Recovery from shoulder surgery is 6 weeks to 2 years (that's my case)

You sent

...dang...

Melvina

remember, mine turned into a frozen shoulder so that was the first "surgery" (manual manipulation) then they did the arthroscopic surgery in March for the rotator cuff and labrum tear. Still dealing with impingement and bursitis. I just had a cortisone shot to the bura last week - holy ouch

Melvina

you're young & in great shape so you will heal fast

July 16, 2015

7/16/15, 10:57 PM

Melvina

I have a question...can you tell me if Sam has his info right? Here is what he is saying:

Melvina

Hey I had post prison education send an email. They are sending a list of places that you can help me get in to that are pre approved addresses for when I get out. I need you to have that done and paid for in communication with my counselor by January. Please don't slack on this. If there is one thing that is crucial it is getting a place set up and agreed upon and paid for so that I can give an address to DOC and get out.

Melvina

seems kind of odd to me he would already be looking at housing...don't you have to go straight to work release & then go through the process like you did?

You sent

Work release is a privilege, not guaranteed. Maybe he is getting released directly.

Melvina

ah ok

You sent

So he is trying to get into a place like where I'm going to

Melvina

are you in an apt?

You sent

No, clean and sober house. That's why I'm looking at 5th wheels to buy asap.

Melvina

oh ok so you are just renting a room then

You sent

Yeah, one that costs $600/mo for communal living, and a whole bunch of bs mandatory programming.

Melvina

damn! that seems really high for a room

You sent

Oh yeah, plus it's even more strict than work release!

Melvina

when can you go out on your own, like to an apt

You sent

I have about $3k right now toward a 5th wheel, buying one as soon as I can. I'm not required to stay there.

Melvina

ok I'll wait to see where Sams choices are then I'm going to ask your opinion 😊

You sent

I'll help, but for you, not for him...

Melvina

thank you...I'm only helping for John, certainly not for Sam. I'm not even sure John wants to help. I just read his email and thought I would ask you what's going on

You sent

I think he should do it on his own, build some character.

You sent

I sure did it all on my own

Melvina

trying to deal with Adam & his meth/heroin use right now so we are emotionally tapped

You sent

That sucks

Melvina

yes it does especially since he doesn't want to get clean & it's been going on for about a year

Melvina

he is a ticking time bomb

You sent

You can't make him, he has to hit his own rock bottom. Sad, but true.

Melvina

that's what I told John a few months ago and 2 detox centers later, John gets it. He is on his own now

Melvina

Hard to think with your head & not your heart when it's your son. I'm glad I never had to go through the hard drug addiction with my kids when is a good time to call you?

Melvina

You sent

Tomorrow, I will message you and have you call. Will that work?

November 25, 2015

11/25/15, 9:09 AM

Melvina

OK, all taken care of. Support Order has been lifted and dates back to 3/13. You still owe $50 a month for back support from Jan 2010 (I think) to Feb 2013. You can call Jennifer, your case worker and she can give you the exact amount owed

Melvina

That may be hard for me to do...can Miss K come over tomorrow @1 and I can give her herb and money?

Melvina

You should go into urgent care because if you have strept you need antibiotics

Melvina

Or she can come by now

You sent

Not strep, I know the look, just glands. And yes she could come by now, wherever you need her to go. I hate asking, but I'm miserable, and she deserves the better me as hard as she works to help me. 🙄

Melvina

I have herb here and I can give her $$ to stop at the grocery store in town for throat spray

You sent

Resin gave me a knarly migraine, knew better, lol

Melvina

How are you feeling

You sent

Alright, still annoyed at the hospital.

Melvina

Why?

You sent

Just some unprofessional attitudes

Melvina

Melvina

They've been pretty good when I've seen them

You sent

Most were great, the last nurse was something else, ex MP from N.Dakota, likes to talk shit when she thinks ppl can't hear.

Melvina

Well that's not cool

Melvina

Was she talking shit about you or other patients

You sent

Others early on, then me because I'm a pothead ex felon.

Melvina

Wow! Pretty unethical. You should fill out a customer non satisfaction form

You sent

Plus she lied to K about faxing in her antibiotic scrip, and had a serious attitude in general.

Melvina

For a pretty new hospital that's a bad addition. I seriously would complain.

Melvina

So did she get her script? Strept is not something to mess around with.

You sent

I have everything except two letters from family or long time friend telling the counselor that there has never been any concern or indication that I have ever had a problem with hard drugs (stronger than herb, they know I use medicinal MJ).

You sent

If I don't have the eval in my PO's hands Tue @ 10am I will be taken into custody for violation.

Melvina

Write the letter and send it to me. I will hand write it and give it to you tomorrow

You sent

Thank you mom. I went through hell just finding the med paperwork the guy wanted, thankfully he went to my PO for my criminal records

Melvina

Melvina

Why no hot water?

You sent irreparable damage from past freezes. tried to fix it, but it just blew all over again, thankfully cold as it blasted me in the face.

Melvina

You sent

I got denied a loan for $15k, even with 10% down, due to lack of credit history.

Melvina

Yay I have 2 lbs of bacon and a couple of steaks for you

You sent

So serious question for you and John.

You sent

I want to get a newer motorcycle than I have, like early 2000's. I'm looking at around $3k. That would make payments around $100/mo. I could put my truck title and even motorcycle title up as collateral if you guys wanted. Truck is worth like $2300, bike is with about a grand. My credit is basically shot until I pay off the rest of the medical bills from Sunnyside.

Melvina

I would love to help but our savings is tied up on the adoption trial

You sent

I just need a co-signer

Melvina

We're waiting to see if Kelly wants to go to trial which means 20,000 and refinancing our house
Melvina

If I co-sign that affects my refinance

You sent

Even with that small an amount?

Melvina

Yes as its considered an unpaid debt and right now I only have my car and house that in owe on.

Melvina

Who is Jessica and why are you in a pic with her?

You sent

Jessica is sunshine on a cloudy day, with a soft cool breeze

Melvina

Umm you have a girlfriend and baby on the way. Thus picture and caption appear you are in a relationship with Jessica

You sent

Kristian and I have never dated mom, talk to her about it.

Melvina

If you are not going to commit to her then don't expect her to stick around when the baby is born

November 3, 2016

11/3/16, 7:47 PM

Melvina

Your baby is barely moving and she needs to go have him checked out!!!!!! The stress of you out fucking around, literally, is taking toll on her and the baby.

You sent

Out Fucking around? Get your Fucking facts straight, WE WERE NEVER TOGETHER! This is due to HER choices, ones she was repeatedly warned about over 18mo. Ask her before you talk to me.

Melvina

She carrying your child! I don't give a shit what your relationship is! She is YOUR responsibility. What if he has the cord around his neck? What if she goes into labor? She should go stay with her family until he's born so she has someone who can be there with her and help her

Melvina

She took care of you for MONTHS while you were bed ridden. Now you're all better and you leave her alone, stranded at an RV park. If you didn't want to commit to her, maybe you should have not decided to have this baby

Melvina

She is not bitching or complaining she is just fucking scared something is wrong. He is barely moving at all

Melvina

She has not said one bad thing about you. I want to kick your ass

You sent

Did you know that I am Fucking broke down after being towed last night? You are fucking up mom, bad. You dare accuse me of not caring?? You, who has kept my son not only from me, but the ENTIRE Bennett side for damn near his whole life? One more comment like that mom, and I will stop responding to you period, I will not allow that toxic stress to be thrown into my life.

Melvina

The ENTIRE Bennett family has made NO contact with me in over 8 years. You have another baby on the way and you would rather be off with Jessica than home with the mother of your child. If you were home, you wouldn't have needed to be towed. Go ahead, block me. Do not respond and I will do the same!

Melvina

Peace out!

November 3, 2016

11/3/16, 9:28 PM

You sent

You really want to keep being this way? Do you have ANY clue how fucking good I've treated her from day fucking one? I can't do the constant pointless lies, constant pessimism, overboard co-dependency, her being my constant shadow, no life of her own, doesn't work. Waits till I'm asleep and hops on me for a ride knowing I didn't want to. Fuck, mom, I'm expected to continue on taking shit that makes me want to fucking explode? I'm not allowed to have standards? Nor keep my word when I say from day one I won't tolerate lying to me, ESPECIALLY over petty shit? You'd rather us together, miserable and fighting? We make good friends, but she refused to step up and cut the bullshit - even after a year and a half. Our son deserves happy parents working as a team, and asher and I agreed, not fighting unhappy parents. You are being cruel, unjust, uninformed, and coming at me with bias and disrespectful words. You will only create more unnecessary stress and drama for all by continuing. I REFUSE to be in a relationship spent unhappy, lied to, manipulated, etc. because of a child - I tried that already, and haven't been allowed to speak to my son since I signed the papers I was tricked into with bs false promises of a visiting plan that was PART of the paperwork! I don't want Atom to be raised knowing the bs fighting I grew up with, fuck that; she fully knows and admitted to the list of reasons we are friends forever but not dating. Get your facts straight, and check your own past, before you fly out casting ignorant disrespectful stones. I love you Mom, but I'm a grown ass man, one who has LEARNED his lessons, and doesn't care for a repeat fuck up on child raising.

Melvina

No I don't want you to stay together. I've offered to drive her to Moses Lake. My concern is this baby IS NOT moving barely at all and he's been this way all damn day. Don't fucking lecture me about ANYTHING! I HAVE DONE NOTHING BUT HELP YOU FOR THE PAST YEAR!

Melvina

I am NOT happy you are having a baby because you are not ready for that FULL TIME commitment. But, it's too late for that and now you are in a relationship with her because you have a child! So be a part time parents. That's the only choice you have. You're not going to live together as a couple and you can't live together and see other people... but right now the baby could be in danger. Or not? I don't know. I've done all I can do. I could care less what you do. Get off your high horse. I didn't call you a piece of shit, I didn't say anything derogatory or bring up your past. You're mean. I'm done. If she wants a ride to Moses Lake, we can take her on Tuesday. You're both better off that way. Her mom can take care of her for the next 2 months then you guys can work out visitation. She's not my responsibility and neither is the baby.

Melvina

Blame me for your unhappy miserable life. I accepted MY part over 25 years ago. You don't need to tell me what a piece of shit mother I was. I accept and admit. I don't cast blame.

Melvina

Take care Zack. I love you but I will not tolerate your abuse and blame every time I say something you don't like. I AM a good mom. YOU made your choices. YOU made the choice to live with her for the past 18 months. YOU made the choice to have this baby KNOWING full well it was going to be a fucked up situation. Don't blame me for your choices. I'll let Kay know to call 911 if she needs anything. I didn't know caring about an unborn child could cause such anger. I'm out.

You sent

Really mom? Seriously? All I Fucking asked was for you to drop this shit, why must you continue? Everything I said was done so calmly, caps used for emphasis. I am not even angry, I just want you to discontinue jumping up my ass. Is that too difficult? Must you be angry? I can't stand anger anymore.

You sent

And mother, the only one talking anger is you, I can be upset these days with no need for anger; anger is a secondary emotion, one that causes serious health problems. I accept my issues, and our past ones with no resentment. Tim is not, nor ever will be, a past subject to me. This is MY relationship, leave it to me as I do yours. I have been there every time I was needed until now, and will be as soon as the truck is fixed. Cut this crap mom, we have worked too hard to blow it over egos.

November 3, 2016

11/3/16, 11:41 PM

Melvina

Ego? I'm concerned because the baby may be in danger and it's MY ego? Obviously she's playing me and nothing is wrong OR you don't care. If the baby is in danger and she is not playing and something goes horribly wrong...am I not supposed to be mad you are not there? Ego? WTF? Stop messaging me! This is your baby, your problem. Fuck me for caring!

You sent

Sorry for the lack of response mom, we are on a sort of sabbatical you could say. We had church earlier at the Unitarian Universalist congregation of Salem, and are headed to the coast now. Please keep that to yourself, as only the grandparents know (it was on their counsel and urging that we take this break).

You sent

I might be going back to theological school...

Melvina

You sent

March 6, 2017

Melvina

OR would be a great place to live...no taxes, beautiful scenery and you can live anywhere with an RV. I agree with the grandparents. Time for a fresh start. You have 6-8 months to get settled, stable jobs, permanent living. Then Atom is going to be mobile and you'll need a bigger place. Maybe they can help you relocate. The courts look for stability which is how they got custody of Karen. This is the start of a new beginning.
